

K-LOVE has been an inspiration and encouragement to me through their music and spoken message. If K-LOVE were displaced by other programming there would be very limited choice for this community when it comes to wholesome and uplifting radio programming. The service that K-LOVE provides has been instrumental in helping the public to cope with problems such as depression and has been a source of hope to all who hear its' message.